

Important note for JWW exhibitors on Friday and Premier exhibitors on Thursday and Saturday

Atlanta KC / Chattahoochee Weimaraner Club Agility Trials

July 11-15,2018

The initially uploaded Complete Running Order had errors. Those have been corrected and a new Running Order has been loaded to the Atlanta KC website.

In preparing a timeline for these trials, it was noted that there would be significant conflicts between Std and JWW Exc/Master classes on Friday. To ameliorate that problem, The 4 and 8 inches JWW dogs will run prior to the 24 inches JWW dogs on Friday. The order for Friday JWW will be 8,4,24,20,16, and 12 inches. The Trial Committee anticipates a significant time saving as a result of this change.

There is a possibility for conflicts for exhibitors entered in Exc/Master FAST and Premier Standard on Thursday and/or Saturday. Exhibitors so affected should submit a conflict form (attached) via email to the Trial Secretary or in person at the trial. These might be submitted no later than the end of the trial on the previous day. You will then be placed at the beginning of the FAST class so as to not conflict with your Premier run.
